Présentation de l'éditeur

Invader is an internationally recognised French artist, known for his placement of mosaics inspired by the 1970s computer game Space Invaders. This books charts just a part of Invader's project - started over a decade ago - which has spread to more than 40 cities around the world, including London, Paris, Berlin, Cologne, Amsterdam, Brussels, Sao Paolo, Mombasa, Bilbao, Los Angeles, Manchester, Istanbul, Vienna, Newcastle, Tokyo, Bangkok and Melbourne. This Invasion guide relates to the 'invasion of Miami' and 'Art4Space' the brand new project of the street artist Invader. Made by the artist himself this book presents the two waves of the Invasion of Miami compiling pictures of all the mosaics he put in the city landscape, locations maps, and a great many stories about this journey. Biographie de l'auteur

Invader is a world-famous street artist known for having put mosaics of videogame characters in the urban landscape of many cities around the world. He was featured in Banksy's movie 'Exit trough the gift shop' and has participated in many shows in important art galleries and museums. Invader once declared: 'My books reveals the submerged side of my work'. Dimitri Salmon is an art critic and curator living and working in Paris.
